

Integration

Ms. Monfort Montero has been working as both the District of Böblingen's Integration Commissioner and the head of the Integration Department in the Office for Migration and Refugees since April 2016. Her area of responsibility includes intercultural openness and process development within the Office for Integration and Migration, where she is the person to contact for the monitoring and evaluation of processes. She is responsible for pooling successful integration projects ('good practice' examples) and passing them on within the District (e.g. in the 'Round Table on Integration' forum), as well as for networking with partners working on different areas and priorities within the field of integration (language, education, labour market etc.). Her responsibility likewise includes the identification of further areas of activity, the organisation and implementation of information forums and specialist events, the preparation of specialist publications and the development of measures and project proposals.
