

Department for Foreigners and Citizenship

The Department for Foreigners and Citizenship supports you in matters relating to right of residence and is your point of contact for the sub-areas of asylum rights and integration. In addition, this department encompasses citizenship rights and name changes. The Foreigner's Registration Office is responsible for the District of Böblingen, with the exception of the large district cities and their suburbs. This department is led by Mr. Thomas Gonther-Belge.

A day in the life of the Department for Foreigners and Citizenship

Advice

- Please always bring your national passport / replacement identification / personal identification with you
- If you do not have a good command of the German language, we ask that you interview together with an interpreter.
- Any potential fees that arise can be paid at the automated pay station, either in cash or using a credit/debit card.